Recruits anticipate gaining hands-on experience and in-depth exposure to club, hotel and resort operations.”

Craig D. Martin, CCM

Craig D. Martin, CCM and founder of Club Leaders Group shared, “In return for their commitment, international recruits receive a paid 12-month rotational opportunity via J-1 Visa Internships followed by a sponsored H2B Visa for up to 3-years in a position that meets the priorities of the recruit and the respective employer. Recruits anticipate gaining hands-on experience and in-depth exposure to club, hotel and resort operations. They may work in all positions throughout the operations and should be afforded the opportunity to develop supervisory and management skills.”

As part of the Reserve Recruitment program, recruits expect hands-on and instructor-led management training in food and beverage, culinary, golf, tennis, spa, salon, fitness, aquatics, course and grounds maintenance, membership, marketing, catering, banquets, front desk, accounting, and even human resources. This training, coupled with hands-on experience, prepare the recruits for immediate placement into your club or resort operation after one year. Club Leader's Group has successfully recruited and instructed hundreds of interns and trainees who aid country clubs and hospitality groups with a year-round career focused staff to supplement current staffing programs. These personally selected recruits are empowered team members seeking to make significant contributions to the business while developing their careers. Several exclusive private country clubs in Florida are eagerly awaiting the arrival of their recruits in the coming months and upon arrival will immediately begin training.
